OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MEMORANDUM NO. 5-130-8

SUBJECT: Rescission of OPM's

1. Over an extended period of time, OPM's become outdated, inaccurate, or partially incomplete through changes in operating procedures, organizational structure, and policies. Instructions which are outmoded by such changes should be rescinded or revised.
2. In an effort to bring the Office of Personnel Memorandums up to date, the OPM's listed below are rescinded effective immediately:
 - a. All OPM's still in effect which were issued in 1951, 1952, 1953, 1954, and 1955.
 - b. OPM's issued in 1956 and 1957 to be rescinded as shown in the attachment.
3. The rescission of these OPM's should not be construed as cancelling any established policy, responsibility, or procedure. Division and Staff Chiefs should review the rescinded material applicable to their functions and responsibilities and prepare drafts of OPM's on pertinent policy and/or procedures as appropriate for reissuance if current internal instructions are required.
